ANTI FINGERPRINT SURFACES

What are the 1mm AFX Compacts Laminates?

Inspired by the enduring allure of nature's beauty, we present our AFX ultra matte compacts and laminates. These captivating surfaces resist blemishes and are designed to leave a lasting impression, while also ensuring no fingerprints mar their charm. Beyond their aesthetic appeal, these AFX laminates are practical and robust, being anti-bacterial, anti-viral, and resistant to water, mold, and scratches.

Moreover, our AFX compacts stand out due to their unique 1mm thickness. This makes them not only beautiful, but also versatile, as they can be utilized across a multitude of industries. These features underscore our commitment to redefine interior surfaces, setting our AFX line apart from the competition.
